PERPETUAL EQUITY INVESTMENT COMPANY LIMITED

NOMINATION AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE CHARTER

OBJECTIVES

- 1 The Nomination and Corporate Governance Committee (Committee) has been established by the board of directors (Board) of Perpetual Equity Investment Company Limited ACN 601 406 419 (Company). Its functions are to support and advise the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities to shareholders and other stakeholders of the Company by:
 - (a) reviewing and advising the Board on the composition of the Board and its committees;
 - (b) reviewing the performance of the Board, the Company's Chair, the executive and non-executive directors and Board committees;
 - (c) developing succession plans for consideration by the Board;
 - (d) advising the Board on good governance standards and appropriate corporate governance policies for the Company; and
 - (e) critically reviewing the Company's performance against its corporate governance policies.

NOMINATION RESPONSIBILITIES

- 2 In relation to its nomination function, the Committee is required to:
 - (a) periodically assess both the skills desired and required to discharge the Board's duties, having regard to the strategic direction of the Company;
 - (b) develop a process for evaluating the performance of the Board, its committees and its individual members;
 - (c) critically review the skills, performance and effectiveness of the Board, its committees and its individual members in accordance with the process developed under paragraph 2(b), having regard to the Company's Board Tenure and Performance Policy;
 - (d) establish criteria for Board membership;
 - (e) review the size and composition of the Board;
 - (f) develop succession plans for consideration by the Board;
 - (g) review the time commitment required from non-executive directors, whether existing non-executive directors are meeting that requirement and the procedures in place to ensure that new non-executive director candidates are able to meet the requirements following their appointment;
 - (h) develop and review disclosure about a formal and transparent process for selection, appointment and re-appointment of directors, including the Board skills matrix included in the Company's annual Corporate Governance Statement, criteria for selection of candidates, steps taken to ensure a diverse range of candidates are selected and how any gaps in the skill or experience of the Board are identified;
 - (i) propose candidates for directorships to the Board having regard to the desired composition of the Board as stated in the Board Charter, as well as the particular skills, experience, expertise, independence and diversity that will best increase the effectiveness of the Board having regard to the background and competencies of the existing directors;
 - (j) review the Company's disclosure in relation to director elections and re-elections having regard to the principle that all material information in the Company's possession relevant to whether a person should be elected or re-elected as a director of the Company (including biographical details, qualifications, the candidate's independence and a statement from the Board as to whether it supports the candidate's election or re-election) should be provided to shareholders to allow them to make an informed decision;
 - (k) inform the Board of the names of directors who are retiring in accordance with the provisions of the Company's Board Tenure and Performance Policy and make recommendations to the Board as to whether the Board should support the election or re-election of that retiring director. In order to make these recommendations, the Committee will review the retiring director's performance during the period in which the director has been a member of the Board;

- (l) review the Company's Diversity and Inclusion Policy and provide the Board with an annual report on the status of diversity within the Company and the effectiveness of the policy in achieving any measurable objectives which have been set to achieve diversity;
- (m) propose measurable objectives to assist the Company to achieve gender diversity for adoption by the Board, annually review the Company's progress in meeting each objective and report to the Board on the effectiveness of the objectives and the Company's progress;
- (n) review the effectiveness of the induction program for new directors established and implemented by the Company Secretary;
- (o) identify any specific responsibilities of individual Board members, including the Company's Chair;
- (p) monitor that directors engage in appropriate continuing education. It is expected that each Director of the Company will attend seminars, conferences and other forms of continuing education that will add to or enhance their skills, knowledge and experience relevant to their role as a Director. Relevant areas include strategy, governance, risk management, environmental social and governance risk (ESG), cybersecurity and technology. Directors are asked to maintain a record of their continuing education noting that the Company will ask for a copy of such record annually;
- (q) review succession planning for the executive directors and other personnel, including in regard to maintaining an appropriate mix of skills, experience, expertise and diversity; and
- (r) review the membership and performance of other Board committees and make recommendations to the Board.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE RESPONSIBILITIES

- 3 In relation to its corporate governance function, the Committee is required to:
- (a) review developments in corporate governance in Australia and internationally that may be relevant to the Company and to the expectations of the Company's shareholders and other stakeholders;
 - (b) monitor the corporate governance requirements of regulators, including the Australian Securities and Investments Commission, Australian Taxation Office and the Australian Securities Exchange;
 - (c) review ethical guidelines and standards for directors;
 - (d) advise the Board on corporate governance standards, and on the adoption or amendment of corporate governance policies that would be appropriate for the Company;
 - (e) advise the Board on the appointment, role and removal of the Company Secretary;
 - (f) biennially review the Company's corporate governance policies and procedures (including their coverage and the design of the governance oversight) and, if appropriate, recommend to the Board any amendment to those policies and procedures or the adoption of any new policies or procedures; and
